Holomorphic vector boundles with meromorphic connections and triangular linear differential systems

Renat Gontsov

Abstract

We consider linear differential systems on Riemann sphere and use approach of holomorphic vector boundles endowed with meromorphic connections. We study the question concerning integration in finite terms of systems with bounded (Levelt's) exponents and some inverse problems for systems with triangular monodromy.