A global attractor of a sixth order Cahn-Hilliard type equation

We study a sixth order convective Cahn-Hilliard type equation that describes the faceting of a growing surface. It is considered with periodic boundary conditions. We deal with the problem in one and two dimensions. We establish the existence and uniqueness of weak solutions. We also show existence of global attractor in dimensions one and two.

References